

Street Savvy

IN STELLENBOSCH

Your safety and well-being are of the utmost importance. As in other countries, there are a few universal safety precautions you should keep in mind.

ON THE STREETS

- Don't display your valuables
- Avoid dark deserted areas
- Don't allow anyone to distract you
- Tell someone where you are going

PARKING

Street parking is payable Monday to Friday from 8am to 5pm and 8am to 2pm on Saturdays. Parking is payable by bank card (Mastercard /

VISA) or Apple Pay to a uniformed, official parking attendant with a card machine. Street parking in Stellenbosch is free after 5pm weekdays, after 2pm on Saturdays and free on Sundays and public holidays. Parking is not paid at ATM. After hours or informal car guards are usually self-employed and work for tips. Tipping is completely voluntary and at your discretion.

ATM MACHINES

Cashless is best but if you have to withdraw cash from an ATM, keep the following in mind:

- Don't let anyone assist or distract you at ATM
- Stand close to ATM, hide your PIN
- Only use ATMs in well-lit areas
- Don't display your cash
